

Lifetime Contribution to Volunteering Award

This award allows you to recognise volunteers who have been volunteering for your club for ten or more years, who went above and beyond between January 2019 and December 2020, and whose actions brought about a positive change in your club.

Judges will be looking for volunteers who proactively excelled in having a positive impact on your club to ensure its' continued success. Additionally, they will be looking to see how volunteers helped create a positive environment for staff, members, and the community.

Please include any examples where they have been proactive in creating beneficial change.

All finalists will be presented with a certificate on stage at the Industry Awards for Excellence.
